SAYS LITTLE RESISTANCE AGAINST GERMANS DURING BOMBARDMENT OF NAMUR

Fort Dave, Fort Wepion and Line of Forts to North of Town Still Resist—No Panic When Town Was Evacuated—Belgian Troops Passed Out Under Screen Within French Lines—French Army Take Charleroi—Become Masters of Line Between Thuin and Metax.

(Capital Leased Wire.) London, Aug. 27.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says that he met few miles outside of Philippville, a general of Ninnaumessy, chief of Belgian officer and the paymaster, general of Namur, who told him that the town of Namur had been occupied by the Germans. It had been subjected to a furious bombardment and the German fire was so well regulated that the first few shots had silenced Fort Marcheville, on the right bank, and Fort Wepion on the east. Fort Andouillet suffered badly and was almost out of action. The story continues:

"The Germans entered the town without encountering much resistance. Fort Dave, at the southeast of the town, and Fort Wepion on the opposite side of the Meuse and the line of forts to the north still resist. "In spite of the elaborate preparations which were made, however, as an industrial mining district and in the slag heaps of the surrounding country the French found admirable vantage ground, while as in Upper Alsace the Germans mounted Mitrailleuses in an orderly manner. All rolling stock and motor cars were removed and the station-master left on the last locomotive with the railway cash book under his arm.

"The Belgian troops numbering about 2,000, passed under the protection of French cavalry screen, within the French lines.

May Cause Annoyance. "Thus the Germans have done much to win mastery over the two banks of the Meuse almost as an island. They, however, left behind them six of eight forts of Namur which, it is expected, will yet cause them considerable annoyance. "Later on Sunday the French artillery in its turn, opened fire upon the stricken town of Charleroi. The Germans in the earlier stages of the engagements had poured their shells upon the town.

GERMAN OPPOSITION IS DEMORALIZED BY THE RUSSIAN ARMY

Stated Czar Will Have no Difficulty Getting Twenty Million More Men.

TROOPS WELL EQUIPPED AND IN GOOD SPIRITS
Soldiers Understand Reason for War and Are Fighting Like Elends.

(Capital Leased Wire.) London, Aug. 27. (4:45 a.m.)—A despatch to the Post from St. Petersburg comments on the excellence of the Russian army and the inexhaustible supply of men to draw upon. It says further:

"Russia will have no difficulty in finding 20,000,000 men to complete the work begun by its trained fighting forces. Moreover, this is the first time in the history of man that the Russian army has taken the field with adequate equipment and a sufficient number of regular under officers trained in the hard lesson so thoroughly learned in the Japanese campaign.

"The history of that campaign shows what Russian soldiers accomplish when badly fed and equipped, but under the conditions of today, and fighting in the cause they understand, there is little wonder that the Russian soldier has proved himself a match for the German.

"The German opposition to the Russian advance is broken and demoralized. Koenigsberg, where three German army corps have taken refuge, is so situated it can easily be contained by an adequate force. While the rest of the Russian army passes on into the interior of Germany, and it is doubtful whether Germany has sufficient organized forces to oppose the Russians."

London, Aug. 27.—12:55 p.m.—The Bankers' magazine in its issue of today says that the depreciation in securities since July 29 to July 30, the depreciation in 1914 representative securities dealt in on the London stock exchange amounted to $40,000,000, the fall being the greatest in British and foreign funds.

AFRAID SHE WAS DYING

Suffered Terribly Until She Took "Fruit-a-lives"

ST. JEAN DE MATHA, JAN. 27th, 1914. "After suffering for a long time with Dyspepsia, I have been cured by 'Fruit-a-lives'. I suffered so much that I would not dare eat for I was afraid of dying. Five years ago, I did not wish to try them for I had little confidence in them but, seeing my husband's anxiety, I decided to do so and at once I felt relief. Then I sent for three boxes and I kept improving until I was cured. While sick, I lost several pounds, but after taking 'Fruit-a-lives', I quickly regained what I had lost. Now I eat, sleep and digest well—in a word, I am completely cured, thanks to 'Fruit-a-lives'."

GREAT PRESSURE IS BROUGHT TO BEAR ON ITALY TO JOIN WAR

(Capital Leased Wire.) London, Aug. 27. (6 a.m.)—A Times despatch from Rome declares that great pressure is being brought to bear on Italy by Germany and Austria to join in the war, both countries making her alluring promises, but without effect.

The Italian people are against Austria, says the despatch, and any declaration by the government to join in the conflict by the side of Germany and Austria would mean revolution. The triple alliance, the Times correspondent adds, is a thing of the past.

MANY FRENCH TOWNS TAKEN BY ENEMY SAYS DESPATCH FROM GERMAN CAPITAL

Stated Gallie Forces Attacked by Army of Crown Prince Have Been Repulsed—Said German Airmen Took Prominent Part in Directing Artillery—Daily News Correspondent Says if Allies Can Hold Out, Enemy's Communication With Base Can Be Cut Off. (Capital Leased Wire.)

London, Aug. 27.—(3:10 p.m.)—A despatch received here from Ostend says the Germans have occupied Lille, Roubaix and Valenciennes, all in France.

Town of Longwy Falls. Berlin, Aug. 27.—(By wireless to the Associated Press, via Sayville, 6:57 a.m.)—All the forts at Namur have fallen and Longwy, near the Luxembourg border, has been captured after a resolute defense. The French forces which attacked the German crown prince's army have been repulsed. Upper Alsace is free of the enemy except at points to the westward of Kolmar.

Revolving Against Officers. London, Aug. 27.—(4:36 a.m.)—Information from southern Dalmatia, says the Post's Paris correspondent, is to the effect that in several towns the Slav troops have revolted against their officers.

Airmen Take Prominent Part. London, Aug. 27.—Refugees from the scene of the fighting around Mons report that airmen took a prominent part in directing the German artillery, says the Times correspondent in Paris. Aeroplanes hovered over the British position and their pilots signalled the German batteries by means of a disc swung at the end of a line.

Says Namur Forts Hold Out. London, Aug. 27.—(12:15 p.m.)—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Ostend credits a Belgian officer with the statement that the Namur forts are still holding out with the exception of Marcheville and Cognec which were destroyed by the bombardment.

The Belgians fought for two days, this officer says, and there is still a large force of Germans before Namur.

The foregoing despatch is in contradiction to the despatch from Berlin received by wireless this morning, which declared that all the forts at Namur have fallen and that Longwy had been captured.

Seems Up in Air. London, Aug. 27.—(5:55 a.m.)—Tests made at various points along the German army's line of communication, says the Ostend correspondent of the Daily News, shows it is surprisingly weak. The Germans seem to have gone forward with the idea that they had nothing more to fear from the Belgian army.

"If the allies can hold their town at front," says the correspondent, "it is certain that German communication with their base can be cut at any moment. In fact their army seems up in the air. It has no support and everything has been chanced on a victory for the advancing army which is travelling fast, carrying its own supplies and supplementing them with levies on the surrounding country."

Louvain Full of Troops. London, Aug. 27.—The Daily Express Ostend correspondent says: Louvain on Sunday was full of troops. This place has apparently been reserved as an army base. The station has been transformed into a huge repair shop with a horse shoeing forge.

"The railway has been cut at several places. A remarkable thing about the German advance is that there are no troops along the lines of communication. The railway services have been re-opened by the Belgians in the towns through which masses of troops have just passed.

"At Audenarde, fifteen miles south west of Ghent, where the greatest army passed through today, there are no troops. All the food stuffs in the town were taken and the railway was broken. When the army passed through the rear guard remained in town over Sunday and Monday. The troops were Bavarians and all were well equipped. The officers and soldiers had been on short rations and ate out the town.

"The wireless plant on the Chateau near the town was disabled. It undoubtedly was part of the German main army that and all the telegraph lines were cut. Monday the last of the troops left passed through."

Turkish Cabinet Wavering Between Declaration War Preservation Neutrality

Strict Censorship Placed on Papers Which are Controlled by Military and Being Used to Create Pro-German Feeling—Stated Germanization to Prevent Russian Invasion.

(Capital Leased Wire.) Constantinople, Aug. 27.—Tension is so acute here that diplomats fear Turkey may at any moment be drawn into the European war on the side of Germany and Austria.

A strict censorship has been placed on the newspapers throughout the country, which are now controlled by the military and are being used to create a strong pro-German feeling. The Turkish cabinet is wavering between a declaration of war and the preservation of neutrality. The diplomatic representatives of the various powers are in constant conference with the government officials, Great Britain and Russia endeavoring to keep Turkey neutral. The German ambassador, it is understood, has intimated that while Germany wishes Turkey to remain neutral, he believed the Ottoman empire should mobilize to prevent an invasion by Russia.

Feeling is most acute over the entry into the Dardanelles of the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau. Great Britain, France and Russia not only requested ten days ago that if these ships were purchased by Turkey, the crews be sent to either Germany or Austria, and promised safe conduct to any of the German sailors on board. Over 100 are said to have been distributed among Turkish torpedo boats.

The British government is viewing this with much disfavor, and the situation has been aggravated by the inability of several English merchant ships to pass through the Dardanelles, even after the Grand Vicer had given the requisite permission. Subordinate officials disobeyed the instructions in a way as yet unexplained.

Great Britain has let it be known that if the Goeben and Breslau enter the Mediterranean with German crews aboard they will be fired upon by the English fleet.

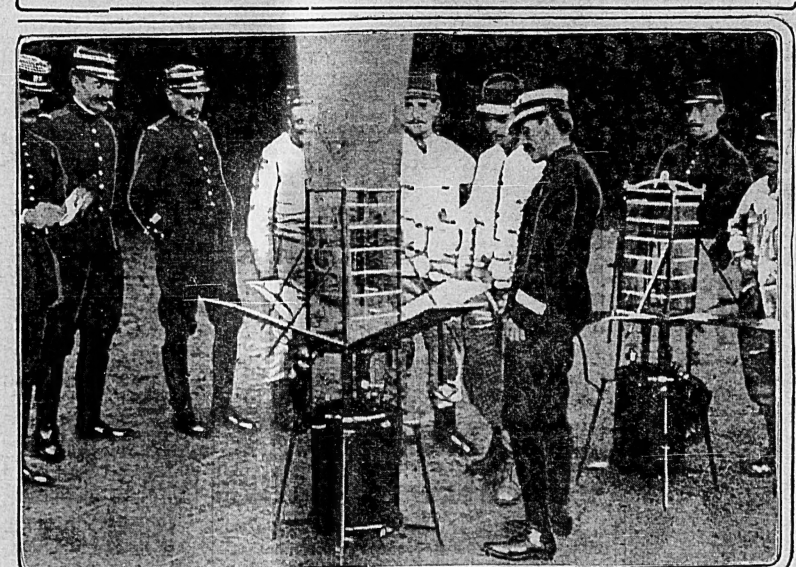

Neither Great Britain nor Russia, however, has assumed a threatening attitude diplomatically, hoping to persuade Turkey to remain neutral. A few days ago the Russian ambassador was requested to cease using his wireless on a Russian vessel in the harbor. He acquiesced, rather than bring on an issue with his government.

AUSTRIANS DESERTING FROM ARMY, SAYS REPORT

(Capital Leased Wire.) London, Aug. 27. (4:40 a.m.)—A despatch to the Morning Post from Rome says that a telegram received from Nish contains statements made by prisoners that there had been numerous desertions from the Austrian army. In some of the regiments, it was stated, forty per cent of the reservists failed to respond to the call to the colors.

Austrian Prince in British Army. London, Aug. 27. (4:40 a.m.)—A despatch to Reuters' Telegram company from Paris states that Prince Louis Antoine of Orleans and Braganza, who resigned his commission in the Austro-Hungarian army at the outbreak of the war, has been authorized by King George to serve in the British army. He has left for the front to join the staff.

FEW BELGIAN RIFLEMEN HOLD VILLAGE AGAINST A LARGE GERMAN FORCE

Paris, Aug. 27.—(5:15 a.m.)—A refugee from Merbes-la-Chapelle, a town 12 miles from Mons, said on Sunday here, that 30 Belgian riflemen posted in his town, kept several thousand Germans at bay for three days until a German spy, disguised in a Belgian uniform showed them a path which enabled the Germans to take the riflemen in their rear. All were killed except 12 villagers.

METHOD OF DROPPING BOMBS FROM AIRSHIPS DESCRIBED BY REFUGEE

(Capital Leased Wire.) London, Aug. 27.—The method used by Zeppelin airships in dropping bombs has been described as follows by an English refugee who has just arrived from Belgium. "The dirigible hovers over its object at sufficient altitude to keep it out of the range of the enemy's guns. At the same time it lowers a steel cage attached to a steel wire rope 2,000 or 2,500 feet long. This cage is divided into compartments and it carries one man whose duty it is to throw down the bombs. The cage is sufficiently strong to make rifle fire against it ineffective and because of its small size and the fact that it is kept constantly in motion it is very difficult for heavy guns to hit it."

LAST ACT OF AMAZONS IS MORE SIDE SPLITTING THAN TWO PRECEDING

The last act of "The Amazons," which will be presented at the Empress Theatre, is probably the most laughable act that Arthur W. Pinner ever wrote. The latter has made a statement when one remembers "The Magistrate," "Sweet Lavender" and "The Gay Lord Queser." But the public of three continents have laughed more heartily over this act, and it has been given more attention in more popular criticism, than either of the two preceding.

The scene is a large apartment in twelfth floor, artistically decorated and fitted with gymnastic apparatus for the use of three daughters of the Marchioness of Castlegrave. When the curtain ascends the room is in darkness, but a faint blue light is seen through the skylight and a large window at the end of the room. After a short silence, there are sounds of music, voices in whispers, and the breaking of glass; then a man's hat is seen above and one is seen descending into the Ladies' Refectory, the Count de Grival and his friends are with the aid of a rope.

They are not far from the door, but the Count de Grival, a Belgian nobleman, who has been strictly forbidden entrance to the grounds, is in a splendid hall by the marchioness who does not approve of one or any of them.

The Count de Grival and his friends are of the count's opinion, expressed in imperfect English, "Love laughs at locksmiths"—and they proceed to hide themselves in a commodious closet until the arrival of the Ladies' Refectory. They, however, enter in gymnastic dress with their instructors, "Sergeant" Letty Shuter, who would be unfair to relate what follows, or of the consternation which arises on the arrival of the marchioness herself, who arrives unexpectedly and expresses her opinion of the Count de Grival and his friends.

Fortunately the Count de Grival has just stumbled over a vaulting horse and, as he rubs his shin, he sees the only English man, who he knows sounds like "Damian" to the marchioness.

The fun grows fast and furious and never ceases till the fall of the curtain on what Edmonton audiences will concede to be a splendid comedy, finely acted and staged by Theodore Johnston and his players.

TEDDY McNAMARA AND QUEENIE WILLIAMS IN MUSICALS AT PANTAGES

Next week's bill from all advance notices looks to be better than any yet come to the local playhouse for some time. Old favorites will again return as the headline and the added attraction promises to be a real sensation in the theatre for some time.

The headline brings back Teddy McNamara, Queenie Williams and company in a new musical feature act, "The Guide to Monte Carlo." The "Vines of Teddy McNamara and Queenie Williams are favorites in Edmonton and all of the Pantages patrons know that they can expect to have a good act. The music is said to be pretty and include seven numbers.

The puzzle comes in the form of the added feature. No advance notice has been sent out in regard to the act and it is simply looked as "Titanic." What it is will not be known for several days but from all reports from the Pantages producing department it is one of the cleverest feature acts that have ever come across the stage.

The bill will be opened by Lockhart and Laddy. They will be seen in a juggling and acrobatic act, which is so daring and difficult that it has earned for itself the sobriquet of "A Brave Attempt at Suicide."

The fun will be supplied by Saunders and Von Kuntz in a travesty that they call "Fun in Slacks." The other of those breezy patterlings is terminated with catchy songs. Another act on the bill which will be prominent position is the Rodell Singers. This trio has earned the reputation of being the classic vocalists of the moment. In valuable and that it means to live up to their reputation they will have to extend themselves to the limit for Pantages has had some good harmony troupes lately. They have a rich repertoire of songs and all have good voices.

OMAR THE TENTMAKER HERE FOR TWO NIGHTS AND ONE MATINEE ONLY

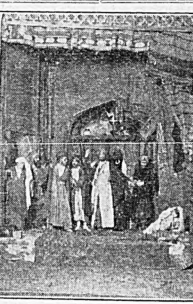

Not in many months has the stage been graced with so attractive and successful a romantic drama as "Omar the Tentmaker," the spectacular love-play in the third language of the East. Post will play an engagement at the Empress theatre, commencing Thursday evening for two days, and a matinee Saturday afternoon. There will be no performance Saturday night.

The play relates the love-life of one of the most engaging characters in the world's history, Omar Khayyam, the merry hearted Persian poet and mystic of the eleventh century. In the title role Mr. Post enacts himself in the most convincing manner. York theatre-going during the past season to a degree unparalleled by any actor since the passing of the late Richard Mansfield.

It is rare indeed that an actor so completely visualizes an heroic figure that his conception is universally accepted as par value by even the most skeptical observers of the person in question. Such, however, is the notable achievement of Mr. Post in his remarkable characterization of the beloved Omar.

"Omar, the Tentmaker" is from the gifted pen of Richard Walton Tally, and has secured a much more popular success than did his preceding work.

"OMAR THE TENTMAKER"

Beautiful Play of Persian Poet at the Empire Theatre and Friday Nights and Saturday Matinee.

"The Bird of Paradise," and "The Rose of the Rancho." Mr. Tully succeeded in bringing to the fore all the sparkling and lovable qualities in Omar's nature, without in the least slighting his humanity, and the tale that he has woven around the poet is swift-moving and constantly enthralling.

Pictorially the production established a new standard in scenic embellishment, the many elaborate scenes having been designed by Mr. Tully and Wilfred Buckland. Especially beautiful is the rose-bowered garden shimmering in silver moonlight that opens the play, while for realistic detail and picturesque adornment it is doubtful if the scene representing the huddled bazaar in the ancient city of Nishapur has ever been excelled.

The company surrounding Mr. Post is of unusual distinction, and players and production come intact from their triumph on Broadway.

The only Persian in the cast will also come along, although much coercion will be necessary to induce him to the stage. For several years, known as Majnun, the said Persian, in a beautiful Persian tiger-skin, and he loathes to travel. As the master hand of Mr. Omar, and he is a fellow of great value, a special caretaker was long ago engaged to attend to his wants, guarding him assiduously night and day.

ATLANTIS AT EMPRESS THURSDAY LAST TIME; THEN LOCAL PICTURES

"Atlantis," one of the biggest film successes that has been brought to the city, is still attracting crowded houses at the Empress. In a measure being a reproduction of the terrible Titanic and Empress of Ireland disasters, it is the most gripping and sensational film that has yet appeared in the city. The story, nevertheless, is not as it is the result, weak and unconvincing, there is a strong thread of interest throughout. This is further assured when it is recalled that the story was written by one of the ablest and most distinguished authors of the present day—Gerhart Hauptmann, who recently on the $40,000, Nobel prize in literature.

As an illustration of the ends gone to by the producers in making this picture the ocean liner, they especially purchased an ocean liner and sunk it in order to secure the setting for the scene that shows the sinking of the steamship "Island." This scene is remarkable as is also the acting of the players immediately before the sinking of the vessel.

"Atlantis" has been continuously showing at the Empress since Monday, an engagement that is unusual, for seldom is a picture shown for such an extended time. There has been no decrease in interest, and there has been no increase of prices.

HEAVY SUMMER RAINS KAIO CHOW MAY DETER - ANY JAPANESE ATTACK

(Capital Lensed Wire) Bulletin—Tientsin, Aug. 27.—(10 p.m.)—There is no evidence today of the landing of Japanese troops in the Kiao Chau territory. It is believed that the heavy rains of Kiao Chau, after the summer rains, will deter any Japanese attack for many days. All native shipping in Kiao Chau bay has been suspended.

DIRECTION OF MASTER HAND IS EVIDENT IN THE BILLIONAIRE, BIJOU

The pattern of the movies often read of the perfect direction given to a motion picture production, but it is a well known fact that, as a class, it is impossible for them to see or appreciate evidence of it. But at the Bijou there is a motion picture playing that once at least shows to the public what perfect direction and producing means.

The film in question was personally directed by David W. Griffith, the world's highest salaried director in the business of the movies, and the name of the picture is "The Billionaire." In hardly a single scene there is not appreciated the master hand of Mr. Griffith. The settings are ideally appropriate, for no expense has apparently been spared to get atmosphere, the characterizations are trained to the utmost, not even the minor roles being badly handled; and the leading ones can hardly be improved upon. Yet these features are only a number of the many that the leading ones can hardly be improved upon.

KAISER WILLIAM DER GROSSE SUNK ON THE WEST COAST AFRICA

BULLETIN—London, Aug. 27.—(4:12 p.m.)—The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse has been sunk off the west coast of Africa by the British cruiser Highflyer.

The sinking of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse removed yet another danger to British commerce. The surrender of German Togoland deprived this ship of her port of refuge. Her presence off the west coast of Africa was particularly menacing in view to the probability that British transports laden with troops from India are probably routed that way, rather than through the perilous Suez canal.

The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse is an auxiliary cruiser of the German navy and carries a subsidy in prize money from the German admiralty. She is a German Lloyd of 11,500 tons, built in 1907 and on receiving news by wireless of the outbreak of hostilities she had only to lift from her hold the 6-inch guns and smaller quick fliers with which she is armed and for which emplacements on deck are provided.

It is feared the present policy is having an ill effect upon recruiting. It seems to be feared the present policy is having an ill effect upon recruiting. It seems to be feared the present policy is having an ill effect upon recruiting.

Dearie! Yes, I believe men all recognize a "man" complexion. They want away your powder and rouge and use a plain spumax lotion. Then you will see the complexion of which you can feel justly proud, because it will be real as well as beautiful. To prepare it, dissolve four ounces spumax in one half pint water. To prevent it, dissolve four ounces spumax in one half pint water. This lotion cannot be detected when on and its regular use banishes lines, blotches, pimples, blackheads and sallowness. The spumax lotion is delightful for spring months, as it protects the skin from the winds.

When you can make your eyes sparkling and clear by this simple home treatment. Dissolve an ounce of crystals (get a drug store) in a pint of water. One or two drops in each eye every day will be all that is necessary to make them clear and look a very soaking dose of absorbent cotton in the tonic and laying them on each eye.

Junia! Be sagacious of skin which you write about is disfiguring and you will be soon wrinkled past help if you neglect it. But try this simple treatment and I'm sure it will work wonderful. Mix an ounce of almond oil (from the drug store) in one half pint cold water and add two teaspoonfuls glycerine. This cream jelly will cause the skin to contract slowly until the healthy firmness is restored. Keep your complexion clear and free from blemishes. Also remove blackheads.

Eugenie! Your yellowness doubtless is due to a lack of a regular and I would suggest a plain kardenie tonic. This will cleanse the blood and give it a healthy glow. KAISER WILLIAM DER GROSSE SUNK ON THE WEST COAST AFRICA

BULLETIN—London, Aug. 27.—(4:12 p.m.)—The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse has been sunk off the west coast of Africa by the British cruiser Highflyer.

The sinking of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse removed yet another danger to British commerce. The surrender of German Togoland deprived this ship of her port of refuge. Her presence off the west coast of Africa was particularly menacing in view to the probability that British transports laden with troops from India are probably routed that way, rather than through the perilous Suez canal.

The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse is an auxiliary cruiser of the German navy and carries a subsidy in prize money from the German admiralty. She is a German Lloyd of 11,500 tons, built in 1907 and on receiving news by wireless of the outbreak of hostilities she had only to lift from her hold the 6-inch guns and smaller quick fliers with which she is armed and for which emplacements on deck are provided.

It is feared the present policy is having an ill effect upon recruiting. It seems to be feared the present policy is having an ill effect upon recruiting. It seems to be feared the present policy is having an ill effect upon recruiting.

Chloe! I have found the most beneficial shampoo for the scalp and hair can be made at home by dissolving a teaspoonful cantharix in a cup hot water. This is usually soothing and cleansing to the itchy, dandruff-laden scalp and quickly corrects over-shampooing and other scalp-upsets. My shampooing from your drugstore and dissolve in one-half pint of hot water. Strain and cool the mixture before using. This is inexpensive and will be welcome to the woman who does not want strenuous diet or exercise.

'GETTES CAUSING FURTHER TROUBLE

Leaders and Fourteen Followers Arrested When They Try to See McKenna

(Capital Lensed Wire) London, Aug. 27.—Mrs. Flora Drummond, Mrs. Dacre Fox, Miss Richardson and fourteen other militant suffragettes are arrested this morning in front of the home office, whether they had gone in an effort to interview Lord McKenna on a question of forcible feeding of women. When they were refused admission they attempted to force an entrance. Hostile crowds gathered and the women were seriously threatened. At this juncture the police appeared and took them into custody.

A number of women demonstrators have been released from custody lately on the clemency of the king. Samuel Herbert McCalland, druggist of Calgary, and Miss Margaret Graydon of Toronto, were married on Wednesday at noon at the residence of the bride's brother, J. Graydon, 411 Third Avenue northeast, by Rev. E. Val Tilton, R.D., of Metropolitan church. They left on the afternoon train for Calgary, where they will make their home.

Julius Vande Rye, and Miss Rachel Ann Wilson, both of Lac St. Anne, were married at the First Presbyterian manse yesterday by the Rev. Dr. McQueen. Mr. Vande Rye is a Belgian, and has a brother in the fighting line. Dr. McQueen also solemnized the marriage of Edward Adrain Fawcett, of Clive, Alta., and Miss Ida Barnhill, of Tielmont, Colchester county, N.S.

Chicago now has municipal funds aggregating $19,000,000 on deposit in banks.

In Selecting Your Afternoon Gown

A great deal depends upon the personal attention you get from your gown maker or dealers of ready-made gowns, and upon whether she gives you honest and disinterested advice. Style is style and fit is fit, but all styles are not becoming to everyone and there are different degrees of "fit."

The next time you are ready to order an afternoon gown, suppose you glance through the Capital. Those ads are the ads of specialists who will be very glad to give your work unusual care and their best individual attention. They are the advertisers that are making money.

Thousands of Edmonton's best dressed women have gotten the habit of reading Capital announcements every day, for in that way they not only pick up bargains but they get acquainted with just the kind of shopkeepers they've long been looking for.

TURN NOW TO THE Advertisers You Should Know

Salient Features of Today's War News

French cities of Lille, Valenciennes and Roubaix, according to a despatch from Ostend, Belgium, which passed through the hands of the censor at London. All three cities are situated within a few miles of the Belgian frontier and Lille is strongly fortified.

Valenciennes is a military station of less importance, while Doubaix is known chiefly as a manufacturing centre.

Exact knowledge of the importance of this movement allows official information. Earlier despatches from Ostend quoted a Belgian officer as authority for the statement that all the allies had decided not to defend Lille and that its evacuation by the French troops was announced by the mayor on Tuesday.

A wireless despatch direct from Berlin early today brought the official announcement that all the forts at Namur had fallen before the Germans who had also captured Longwy.

The army of the Crown Prince it was added, had repulsed a French attack and upper Alsace was free of the enemy except at points eastward of Kolmar.

The war office at Paris had been silent up to nearly noon. The Belgian operations were asserted to have been completely successful, in an official statement that came from Antwerp by way of Paris a little after midnight. Four Belgian divisions from Namur were said to have stopped the southward movement of the German fourth division, after which the Belgians retired on the French line. The forts at Namur were still holding out, it was declared. This claim regarding the Namur fortification was repeated by an English correspondent at Ostend, who quoted a Belgian officer who had arrived from Namur. He said that the Germans have destroyed two forts and were still assaulting the others. It is officially announced at St. Petersburg that the Russian advance in Prussia is proceeding with irresistible force. It has been stated that the objective point of the main Russian army for the present is Posen. The Germans are reported as having retired to Osterode in east Prussia.

A despatch arriving in London from Berlin is credited with the statement that the trains are bringing many refugees to the German capital from Kelnigberg, which city, he declared, civilians had been advised to leave.

Disarmament relations between Austria and Japan apparently have been formally severed.

A despatch direct from Tokio states that the Austrian ambassador, Baron Mueller de Steingraber, has been recalled.

A blockade of the leased territory of Kiau Chau has been declared by the Japanese whose warship shelled a small island off the coast. This island was not defended. This information comes from the Yung Tau. The same despatch states that so far as can be observed, the Japanese have not yet sent a landing party ashore.

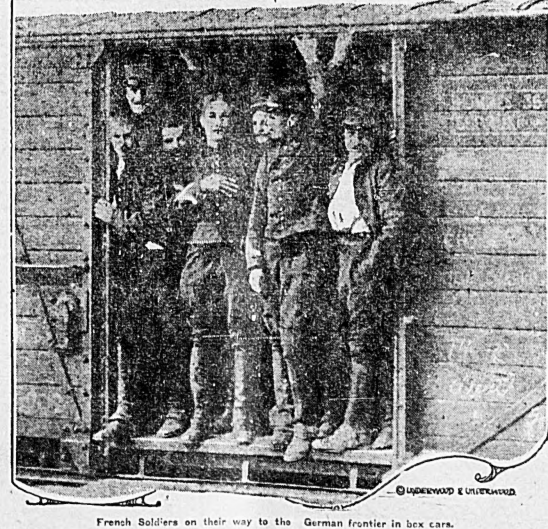

The Japanese minister of justice, Yukio Ozaki announces that hostilities in the China and Japanese seas will end with the capture of Kiau Chau, when Japan will become a spectator instead of a participant in the war. He says, however, if the Germans should prove a menace to the peace through their standing in the south seas, Japan would consult with Great Britain and might cooperate in driving the enemy of the allies out of the Orient.

Keen interest continues in the attitude that Italy will eventually assume. A Rome correspondent of the London Times says that German and Austria are bringing great pressure to bear, offering inducement to join them. Newspaper dispatches report the Italian people are more favorable to a war against Austria than to be neutral, however, that these reports lack official confirmation.

A despatch from Kragevatz, Serbia, says that the Austrian army has routed the serbian of Novi Bazar.

The Norwegian steamer "Gullfjord" mined in the North sea and was destroyed. Eight of her crew were lost.

NUMBER 23 THE PROGRESSIVE

OFFERS ASSISTANCE TO FAMILIES OF MEN WHO HAVE GONE TO WAR

That many farmers will come to the rescue of those who have been left behind by soldiers gone to the war, in providing meat, supply during the winter months, was suggested Wednesday when a farmer living in the Edmonton district made the offer to Col. E. D. Edwards, formerly in charge of the 101st regiment, to give 12 of his best steers. He says that others will make similar gifts of beef, to help provide the families of the soldiers. The suggestion was also made that the beef be shipped to Edmonton about the beginning of November. The farmer does not wish his name mentioned, but also stated that he is willing to live on two meals per day, in order to help any needy ones.

In speaking of the above offer, Col. Edwards says:

"As he points out, the farmers will get increased prices this year for their produce. He makes the suggestion that they should give the difference to the patriotic fund to help the wives and families of the men who are giving up everything for their country. I think that the generous spirit thus displayed should be made known, both

ITALY ALWAYS ONLY LUKE WARM TOWARDS THE TRIPLE ALLIANCE

Present War Will Result in New Combination of European Powers, With Paris Center of Political Map Instead of Berlin, Says Well Pooled Political Writer.

Writing in the Contemporary Review upon "Foreign Affairs," in August, '14, E. J. Dillon, one of the best informed and most reliable authorities on European politics, said:

"Europe is apparently on the eve of such a new combination of the great powers as was caused by the Franco-German war of 1870, and just as after that fateful event, Berlin became the center of the continental political system, so Berlin will fair to play this part in the near future. For France has never been so powerful a factor in politics since the fall of the empire in 1870. Everyone recognizes that her alliance with Russia was the first step from the isolation which followed her military reverses towards her restoration in the political hierarchy, and some of the most popular and statesmanlike politicians of the republic hold that the dissolution of that partnership will be the second. The road which it achieved, however, was largely accidental, while the cost it entailed was proportionately great."

"The chief aim of the French statesman who struck up an alliance with the government of Alexander III, was to neutralize Teutonic aggressiveness, and, if possible, to recover lost provinces as well. The latter part of this program has turned out to be a will-o'-the-wisp, while the first from can now be realized independently of the Russian alliance. Moreover, France, far from being isolated today, counts among her friends and natural allies, not only the Latin peoples, but the smaller states of the continent, to say nothing of Great Britain."

Mr. Dillon then deals with the Triple alliance, and his remarks are particularly interesting in view of the determination of Italy—the third member of the alliance—to remain neutral at the present time. Some Italian politicians have been disposed to question the utility of an agreement which does not relieve Italy from the necessity of spending more money on her national defense. What they ask is the use of the alliance, if Italy has to make heavy sacrifices in order to increase her army and navy and put her frontier fortifications in order? As a writer in the London Times remarks, the answer is more simple than agreeable. It is precisely the existence of the Triple alliance, which has permitted Italy to leave her Austrian frontier absolutely open to invasion, and to allow both her army and navy to fall below the standard which she had proposed to keep up. The alliance has secured her immunity for her neglect. But she has naturally been tempted to consider her immunity by accepting a subordinate role by the side of her allies.

Under such conditions, it is not surprising that Italy has a somewhat lukewarm member of the Triple alliance, but that the agreement has other drawbacks from the Italian point of view is shown by Mr. Dillon in the article above referred to. He says: "The move which induced Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy to enter into partnership have lost their force: the Triple alliance has ceased to exist in such but the name. Italy was the first of the three states to break away, and her adherence to the league was so obviously exposed to the sentiments of her people, and the real interests of the nation, that only the strongest conceivable motive could keep her in the unbecoming society of her former oppressor. That motive had been supplied by the threatened peril of Cavour, that clerical France was at the helm and the Vatican and only awaited a propitious moment to disincorporate Italy and restore Rome to the Pope. But today Germany herself has become the most truly and perhaps the most helpful friend of the Holy See, while France has struck a vicious blow on the line of cleavage between the civil and ecclesiastical institutions which constitute the Catholic church. The ruling body in parliamentary Germany is the ultramontane center and if any state in Europe could be conceived to be capable of breaking a long-standing alliance, it would certainly be one of the two Teutonic empires of central Europe."

Italy's natural alliance should unquestionably have been with the other Latin countries of Europe, and there is not the slightest doubt that the manner in which events have developed, has resulted in Italy's becoming a laboratory—if not an entirely cold member of the Triple alliance."

Eskimos Play Tie Game With Moose Jaw
City Dairy Turn Tables on Wholesalers

E. C. D. DEFEATS WHO LESALERS;

Bentley Was Heavy Hitter of the Day—Good
Sized Crowd Witness Contest.

At the second meeting of the City Dairy team and the Wholesalers, last evening at Diamond Park, the E. C. D. bunch decided they would not yet relinquish their hold on the city championship, and their choice to meet the Calgary Athletics for the provincial amateur baseball title, and with this purpose in view, they defeated the Wholesalers 4 to 2 in a nine innings contest, and on the merits of the play, they were declared champions.

Dairy Made Had to Win

The Wholesalers had already won in their credit and it was strictly up to the E. C. D. to come across with a win if they wished to stay in the running, and they did. The game was somewhat affected by the wet grounds, as it rained the greater part of the nine innings, but not enough to have the game called. The E. C. D. were at their best, and had a large crowd of rosters present to witness their life and death struggle. The Wholesalers were very plentiful, the Dairy supporters in the stand. Altogether about 400 saw the game.

Wholesalers Throw Ball Around

Both teams scored early, the Wholesalers putting the first run in the first inning when Burgess singled to right, second, was sacrificed to third and scored when Mulheide tied to right. E. C. D. however, came right back with two in their half. Bentley singled and stole, and then was hit by pitcher. Both men scored when Stenrus singled to left and the Wholesalers indulged in a little wild throwing. Stenrus almost scored, but was caught between first and home.

Dairy Add Two More

There was no further scoring until the fifth inning, when each team put runs across. Bessley hit for two runs to right and scored when Archie Anhalt singled, but was out at third. Murphy hit safely to left, stole second, but was left on base. Again the Dairy came back strong and added another pair to their first two. It was their good inning, or rather the Wholesalers had an error, and two batted balls were costly to the losers. Pitcher Irwin, first up, singled, left, stole second, and scored when the left went by the third baseman and the catcher. Bentley got his third hit of the day, when he laid one to center infield, stole second, to third on Mulheide's error, and scored.

Wholesalers' Last Chance

For the balance of the game, the E. C. D. had the inside, securing hits in the sixth and seventh frames and having men left on bases. In the ninth, the Wholesalers made their last desperate effort, and Starkey the first up, slammed the pill to right field for two bases, and in trying to stretch it into a three-bagger, was caught at the sack on a relay throw-in. This seemed to take the pep out of the team, and the next two men were easy outs. Martin

ESKIMOS AND ROBIN HOODS
PLAY TIE GAME

Moose Jaw, Aug. 27.—With the score 3-0, in favor of the Eskimos in the eighth, the Edmonton crew came from behind and got a lead of one run. O'Day started the fun and it looked for a time as though the visitors would walk away with the game before they could be stopped. In Moose Jaw's half of the eighth a walk and a brace of singles netted one run. Edmonton again broke the tie in the last inning, only to have it tied again in Moose Jaw's half and so the game ended.
